

The Assembly State of New York

A

Proclamation

Whereas, many organizations have both a deep understanding and wealth of experience working in communities throughout New York State; and

Whereas, it is appropriate to recognize outstanding organizations for their particular contributions that strengthen the fabric of our communities; and

Whereas, the FUSIA Communications, Inc. was founded in 2008 by Elizabeth Kay, seeking to promote cultural exposure and understanding between Eastern and Western cultures; and

Whereas, over five hundred students from universities in Hong Kong, Macau and Singapore have connected with organizations in the New York metropolitan region due to the effects of the FUSIA Communications, Inc. Cross-Cultural Internship Program; and

Whereas, FUSIA Communications, Inc. provides valuable internship experience to its participants, particularly in the sphere of public service and in understanding the United States political process; and

Whereas, the FUSIA Communications, Inc. Cross-Cultural Internship Program in partnership with the Flushing YMCA creates a vibrant student community in downtown Flushing that is instrumental in fostering strong relationships between their respective educational institutions and the United States; now, therefore, be it

Proclatmed, that as a duly elected member of the New York State Assembly I commend:

FUSIA Communications, Inc.

as an outstanding organization that is truly deserving of the esteem of both its community and the great state of New York.
