

Office of the Manhattan Borough President
City of New York

Proclamation

Whereas: We are proud to acknowledge those individuals and organizations that have remained committed to improving our city and vibrantly enriching the community; and

Whereas: the Cross-Cultural Internship Program (FUSIA J-1 Intern) simultaneously provides sensible training experience to Asian students and promotes the qualities and resources of New York City, benefitting the City and its students; and

Whereas: the Cross-Cultural Internship Program (FUSIA J-1 Intern) promotes diversity by serving as a gateway for Asian students, allowing them to share their ideas with their American counterparts, and US companies in turn to provide guidance, support, and resources in order to prepare them to become members of our global economy; and

Whereas: by making hands-on experience and skill-enabling work available, the Cross-Cultural Internship Program (FUSIA J-1 Intern) continues to help change the lives of youth and provides a foundation for their future; and

Whereas: diversity flourishes when students are fully immersed in foreign culture as members of the community of the workforce, which is what the Cross-Cultural Internship Program (FUSIA J-1 Intern) provides;

Now Therefore, I, Gale A. Brewer, do hereby commend the Cross-Cultural Internship Program (FUSIA J-1 Intern) for its efforts and contributions to the City and proclaim Monday July 17, 20017,

“Cross-Cultural Internship Appreciation Day”
in the Borough of Manhattan.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the Borough of Manhattan to be affixed.

Gale A. Brewer
Gale A. Brewer
President, Borough of Manhattan